David Sedaris

Monday, April 30, 2012, 7:30 pm

With sardonic wit and incisive social critiques, David Sedaris has become one of America's pre-eminent humor writers. The great skill with which he slices through cultural euphemisms and political correctness proves that Sedaris is a master of satire and one of the most observant writers addressing the human condition today.

David Sedaris is the author of the bestsellers Barrel Fever and Holidays on Ice, as well as collections of personal essays, Naked, Me Talk Pretty One Day, and Dress Your Family in Corduroy and Denim.

David Sedaris's original radio pieces can often be heard on This American Life, distributed nationally by Public Radio International. In 2001, David Sedaris became the third recipient of the Thurber Prize for American Humor.

The Midnight Serenaders

Saturday, May 12, 2012, 7:30 pm

Ukulele-strumming songbird Dee and co-vocalist Doug perfectly communicate the coy innocence of a bygone era, while their band mates offer a sprightly musical backdrop.
